TRAIL MARKERS

- F2W asks for your opinion in an important survey.
- F2W gives a MISSIONS POSSIBLE update.
- F2W is back from a great trip to Bay St. Louis, MS.

'Risin' up back on the street,' the beginning lines to the classic Eye of the Tiger tune began blaring from my cell phone at 5:40 A.M. This was quickly followed by groans of "It's too early," and "No!" But other than that there was absolutely no conversation between my roommate of the week, Stacy, and I. We shuffled around in the dark, finding toothbrushes and toothpaste wanting to at least brush our teeth before we met the rest of our crew for our 6AM breakfast. No matter how motivating the lyrics of "The Eye of the Tiger" were meant to be, they just weren't working. Neither of us were morning people. I dare say only one member of our group was. Why were we volunteering to do this? To wake up at an ungodly hour (on summer vacation mind you - I am a teacher who loves to sleep in), to spend the day in the sweltering August humidity of Mississippi (only partly true because God allowed us to work in the AC on most days), to sacrifice the comfort of our own beds, and to labor in the homes of others when there's plenty of stuff that needs to be done at our own homes?

The answer is simple, Jesus said so. One of my favorite verses is Romans 15:2 "Each one of us needs to look after the good of the people around us, asking ourselves, 'How can I help?'" (The Message)

This was my third trip to Bay St. Louis, Mississippi since Hurricane Katrina hit in 2005 and each time I return, I am amazed at the devastation and loss in each story I hear. I am humbled by how these people have lost just about everything and yet still have the strength to start over and rebuild. It is nothing but encouragement to me.

So many special memories were made on this trip - from taking off 100 lbs of shrimp heads to painting, painting, and repainting. I look forward to serving again in the future!

Missions Possible Update

I am pumped! See, over the past several weeks the F2W Leadership Team has begun a series of meetings. The purpose of these meetings is simple; to layout F2W's next step. In these meetings we have looked at where we have been (This absolutely blew me away. More on that next month!). We also took a hard look at our current location to determine if we are on course. We determined that F2W "success" is measured by how well we follow our God-given mission of, "Single-minded pursuit of demonstrating God's love through people serving people."

So where is F2W headed? We have a pretty good idea but now we need your help. As we focus on future goals we want to know what you think. Please take a moment to fill out and return the enclosed survey. The information you provide matters to us!

The past, the present, all to help determine our future. And as the saying goes, "the future looks bright!" You wont believe what's coming next. So get on board or get out of the way, because we are... FAITH IN MOTION
